

Confidentiality Agreement

This is to acknowledge that during my assignment to work for or placement with a client of R & W Group I may have access to or receive confidential, private or sensitive information. I understand that I will not disclose, divulge, or in any way use this information for any purpose whatsoever without the prior and express written consent of R & W Group and the company to whom I was assigned or placed when I received or obtained this information. I understand that disclosure or use of such information could be a violation of the law and use or disclosure of the information could result in my prosecution for a criminal or civil violation of the law.

Signature _____

Printed name _____

Date _____